WHY SULAYMANIAH?

Sulaymaniah is one of the most essential cities of the North Iraq region in respect of economy, trade and culture. With the governorate's around 2 million population and its trade, investment potential strikes the attention of businessmen and investors. After the strict economical rules of Saddam Hussein administration and war times, the city started rapidly developing. Dr. Barham Salih, who was the Iraq Deputy of Prime Minister and has been the Prime Minister of Regional Administration since October 2009 is originally from Sulaymaniah. Also, with the encouragements of the government, the investments to Sulaymaniah has been growing up day by day.
