

Future cities = heat pump cities? EUSEW 2010

23th March 2010

Preliminary Program

14.00 Can cities be heat pump cities? A conceptual overview! (Thomas Nowak, EHPA)

14.20 Heat pumps, can they contribute? Requirements stated by the RES Directive (Niels Ladefoged, EC)

14.40 Innovative heating, cooling and domestic hot water in residential housing (N.N., EHPA)

15.00 Office buildings and industrial applications: using renewable energy and increasing efficiency with heat pumps (N.N., EHPA)

15.20 break

15.50 Infrastructure applications and future vision (Michael Monsberger, AIT)

16.10 Heat pumps: The architects point of view (Adrian Joyce, Architects council of Europe)

16.30 The installers perspective? (Frank Baumeister, CEETB)

16.50 Heat pump efficiency measured: SEPEMO (Roger Nordman, SP)

17.10 Discussion

17.30 Close

Venue

The event takes place from 14.00 to 17.30 in Room Luxembourg of the EUROCITIES building.

Square de Meeûs 1

1000 Brussels

Website : www.eurocities.eu/meetingrooms