

Practices

Case of the month

Vallda Heberg: Sweden's first certified passive house residential area

The Swedish residential area Vallda Heberg aims at reaching the national passive haus standard for its buildings. The standard includes specific construction elements in the building design, including air tight envelopes and supply and exhaust ventilation with heat recovery. Read more

Overview Article

Ecodesign and energy labelling of gas and oil boilers

Two European Directives – the Ecodesign and Energy Labelling Directives – and their accompanying regulations have introduced new requirements for fossil fuel boilers, as well as a label to inform about their performances. Read more

Learn

Nearly Zero Energy Hotels e-toolkit

The neZEH e-toolkit, is a practical tool to help hotel owners benchmark their energy consumption in order to turn their hotels into Nearly Zero Energy Hotels. Read more

Events

27 September - CITYNvest - Innovative finance

Organisations that have developed innovative financing models in France and abroad present these and explain how they could be deployed on a wider scale. Read more

13 October – Renovate Europe Day

The 2016 edition of Renovate Europe Day, organised by the Renovate Europe Campaign, concentrates on the EU's ambition for NZEB standards for 2050. Read more

14 October - Horizon 2020 Information Day on the Research Public-Private Partnerships (PPPs)

This event gives the research community an overview of ongoing activities in the Public-Private Partnerships including energy-efficient buildings. Read more

Tell us what you do! Propose content on BUILD UP or contact us directly pr@buildup.eu.

 Like

 Tweet

 Share

 Forward

Unsubscribe